

STARPROJECT 2

MISSIVE 01

CARDINAL:

- everyday a random alarm plays during commercial hour
- you must then consult your compass and write down the direction you are facing at that exact moment (with the precise degree, if possible. example: as I'm writing this, I'm facing 311° northwest) + one sentence (up to 6 words) that synthesizes what you're thinking at the moment.
- at the end of each cycle, you must draw a chart that correlates cardinal directions and your memories of thoughts
